Robert Stephens Custom Jewelers, located on Main Street in Butler is owned and operated by a sole proprietor - Stephen Goslaw.

Steve began his career as an apprentice goldsmith at another local jeweler in 1988.

Over the course of nine years, Steve completed his certification in jewelry fabrication and repair.

In 1997, he formed
Robert Stephens Custom Jewelers.

Steve is proud to offer a fully equipped goldsmith shop where his customers can watch him creating one-of-a-kind treasures on a daily basis.

All custom work and repairs are done on the premises by the owner of the shop, insuring the highest standards and attention to detail.

Steve uses all the latest technology, combined with old world craftsmanship to produce great results and satisfied customers. Steve's thirty years of experience has earned him a reputation of trust in the community.
