The C.W. Howard Insurance Agency has been your trusted partner for sixty-six (66) years. The Howard Agency has been a mainstay in the City of Butler, along with its branch office in Seven Fields. The agency has continued to grow by remaining true to their Core Values of “always trying to do what is best for our customers and our community.” The Howard Agency maintains a commitment to Community and to life-long learning, by promoting educational and volunteering opportunities for all their employees.

“We appreciate the confidence our community has provided to us. We will continue to remember our humble beginnings, strive to maintain our Core Values, and look forward to supporting our customers and community into the future.”
