

Brose's Superette EST. 1947

A BLAST FROM

THE PAST!

Brose's Superette was started by Lloyd & Annabelle Brose in 1947. Bill McLaughlin purchased the family owned business in 1986 after working for the Broses' since 1967.

Being known as the "Home of the Hamloaf" has definitely become their catch phrase. Son Jim, is following in his father's footsteps as the second generation of McLaughlin's. Audrey always prided herself on creating the freshest, tastiest salads and main dishes and Shelly is continuing that tradition.
